

Butyl Rubber Bicycle Inner Tube

This bicycle inner tube is constructed from butyl rubber for durability and reliability. It features a standard Schrader valve for easy inflation and compatibility with various bicycle types.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

High-Performance Butyl Inner Tubes

These bicycle inner tubes are engineered from high-quality butyl rubber, providing superior air retention and puncture resistance for a reliable riding experience. Designed to accommodate a wide range of bicycle types, they offer versatility across various riding conditions. With multiple valve configurations and packaging options available, these tubes are an essential component for bicycle maintenance and retail inventory.

Technical Specifications

Compatible Wheel Sizes

- 20"
- 24"
- 26"
- 28" x 1-3/8"

Material	Butyl Rubber
Section Width	36 mm
Available Valve Types	A/V, E/V, D/V, F/V, I/V

Logistics & Packaging

Packaging Methods

Shrink Film • Color Box • Single Blister Card • Double Blister Card

Color	Black
-------	-------