

Bypass Loppers with Long Handles

These bypass loppers are designed for pruning branches and stems. Their durable construction includes long handles for increased leverage, which allows efficient cutting of thicker branches.

