

C-Type Locking Pliers with Adjustable Jaw

These C-type locking pliers are designed for securely clamping and holding materials. They feature heat-treated jaws for enhanced durability, adjustable screw for clamping pressure, and a quick-release lever for efficient operation.

Product Overview

Professional C-Type Locking Pliers

These heavy-duty C-type locking pliers are engineered for secure clamping and holding of materials in demanding environments. Featuring robust construction with heat-treated jaws, they provide exceptional durability and reliable gripping power for professional applications. The design incorporates an adjustable screw for precise clamping pressure and a quick-release lever for efficient, one-handed operation.

Key Features

Features

- Heat-treated jaws for enhanced durability
- Adjustable screw for precise clamping pressure
- Quick-release lever for efficient operation
- Ergonomic handle for secure grip

Applications

Suitable For	Welding, Metalworking, Woodworking
--------------	------------------------------------

Design & Construction

Construction Type	C-Type
Heavy Duty	Yes