

Cathode Ray Tube Television

This is a cathode ray tube television. It is designed for portability and personal viewing.

Product Overview

Professional CRT Display Solution

This cathode ray tube (CRT) television offers a reliable visual output for legacy applications requiring digital high-definition image processing. Designed with a distinct aesthetic, it features integrated lateral speakers and a control interface centered on the base. It is engineered to maintain high-quality signal representation suitable for various display requirements.

Technical Specifications

Image Definition

Digital HD • DDHD II

Audio System

Integrated lateral speaker system

Physical Design

Bezel Color

Black

Interface Location

Base-mounted control buttons and indicator lights