

Children's Bicycle with Training Wheels

This children's bicycle is designed to help young riders learn balance and coordination. It features a durable purple frame and comes equipped with training wheels for added stability.

Product Overview

Designed for Young Beginners

This children's bicycle is specifically engineered for young riders currently learning to ride. It features a supportive design with included training wheels to build confidence and stability. The vibrant purple frame combined with durable components makes it a reliable choice for children mastering their coordination skills.

Technical Specifications

Safety Components

- Training wheels included
- Partially enclosed chain guard

Key Features

Curved frame design • Beginner-friendly • Ergonomic seat

Color Palette

Purple, White, Silver