

China Pavilion Architectural Model

Architectural scale model of the China Pavilion. It features a distinctive traditional Chinese roof design atop modern structural elements.

Product Overview

China Pavilion Architectural Model

This architectural model serves as a highly detailed representation of the iconic China Pavilion from the World Expo. It beautifully captures the intricate balance between traditional Chinese roof design and modern architectural engineering. The design features a distinctive layered, cantilevered structure that serves as an excellent focal point for professional displays or architectural studies.

Design Specifications

Key Features

- Layered roof structure
- Ornate aesthetic elements
- Internal lighting compatibility
- Contrasting modern base

Style

Traditional Chinese Architecture, Modern Engineering, Cantilevered Design