

Circular Fluorescent Lamp Fixture

This circular fluorescent lamp fixture is designed for lighting purposes in various settings. It features a round fluorescent tube, a white plastic housing, and a central brass-colored connector.

Product Overview

Circular Fluorescent Lighting Solution

This circular fluorescent lamp fixture is designed for reliable and efficient illumination in various professional and commercial environments. Featuring a robust white housing and a central mounting bracket, it ensures stable installation and consistent light distribution. The integrated electronic components support long-term operation, making it a practical choice for general lighting needs.

Physical Characteristics

Housing Material	White plastic
Design Type	Circular

Technical Specifications

Technology
Fluorescent

Key Components

- Integrated electronic components
- Central mounting bracket
- Central brass-colored connector