

Combination Protractor Set

This combination protractor set is designed for accurate angle measurement with a graduated scale from 0 to 180 degrees in both directions. It is constructed from durable materials and includes a knurled adjustment knob for fine-tuning and secure locking.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Precision Measurement Solution

This combination protractor set is a versatile tool designed for accurate angle measurement and layout work. It features a graduated scale from 0 to 180 degrees in both directions, facilitating precise adjustments for engineering, machining, and quality control. The set is engineered for durability and reliability, ensuring consistent performance in demanding workshop environments.

Technical Details

Measurement Range

0 deg

Start Angle

180 deg

End Angle

Material Composition

Stainless Steel, Carbon Steel

Features & Components

Included Components

- Protractor Head
- Square Head
- Center Head
- Steel Rule

Adjustment Mechanism

Knurled adjustment knob for fine-tuning and secure locking

Packaging & Storage

Packaging Options

Plastic Box • Wooden Box