

Combination Square Tool

This combination square tool is designed for precise measurements and marking in various applications. It features a precision-machined square head, protractor head, and rule for accurate measurements, depth marking, and layout tasks.

Product Overview

Precision Combination Square

This professional-grade combination square tool is engineered for high-accuracy measurements and layout tasks in woodworking and metalworking environments. Featuring a durable hard-chrome grooved blade and robust aluminum die-cast components, it is built to withstand demanding workshop conditions. Equipped with integrated leveling and scribing features, this versatile instrument ensures consistent precision for every project.

Construction & Materials

Blade Material	Hard-chrome plated steel
Stock & Accessories Material	Aluminum die-cast

Features

Branding	Silkscreen Logo
Integrated Features	Built-in Scriber, Spirit Level, Grooved Blade