

Commercial Double Door Refrigerator

This commercial-grade refrigerator features a robust, stainless steel, double-door construction designed for professional kitchen environments. It is equipped with a digital temperature display and control panel for efficient cooling and preservation of food products.

Product Overview

Commercial Grade Cooling Solution

This double-door commercial refrigerator is engineered specifically for professional kitchen environments where reliability and performance are essential. Featuring a robust stainless steel construction, it provides a hygienic and durable storage solution for demanding culinary workflows. Integrated digital controls ensure precise temperature management for optimal food safety and preservation.

Technical Specifications

Primary Use

Professional Kitchens • Food Preservation

Number of Doors	2
Construction Material	Stainless Steel
Control System	Digital Temperature Display and Control Panel
Configuration	Commercial Grade, Vertical Hinged Doors