

Commercial Undercounter Refrigerator

This commercial refrigerator is designed to fit under counters, optimizing space in professional kitchens. It features a stainless steel exterior, side-mounted refrigeration unit, and multiple drawers for organized storage.

Product Overview

Commercial Undercounter Refrigerator

This commercial-grade undercounter refrigerator is designed for high-efficiency operation in demanding professional kitchen environments. Constructed with a durable stainless steel exterior, it provides both robust protection and ease of cleaning for busy culinary settings. The unit features an integrated side-mounted refrigeration system with optimized ventilation, ensuring consistent cooling performance across the entire interior storage space.

Technical Specifications

Configuration

- Side-mounted refrigeration unit
- Ventilation grille
- Large door compartment
- Multiple internal drawers

Storage Accessibility

Organized Drawers • Door Compartment

Temperature Control

Electronic control system with integrated digital display

Exterior Material

Stainless Steel