

Commercial Undercounter Refrigerator

This undercounter refrigerator is designed for commercial or industrial use. It features a stainless steel exterior and casters for mobility.

Product Overview

Professional Refrigeration Solution

This commercial undercounter refrigerator is designed for high-performance food and beverage storage in demanding environments like restaurants and supermarkets. It features a robust, mobile design with casters for easy positioning and a ventilation system optimized for commercial use. Available in multiple finish options, this unit offers reliable cooling performance for professional food service operations.

Model Information

Model Specifications

Color	Model Number
White	RA610W
Silver	RA610S

Design & Build

Exterior Features	Stainless Steel Exterior, Vertical Door, Casters Included
-------------------	---