

Commercial Upright Display Refrigerator

This single-door upright display refrigerator is designed for commercial use, featuring a glass door for product visibility. It maintains a consistent temperature range to keep beverages and food items fresh.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Commercial Cooling

This single-door upright display cooler is engineered specifically for commercial environments where product visibility and freshness are paramount. It features a transparent glass door paired with bright internal lighting to maximize visual impact for customers. The durable exterior construction ensures long-lasting performance, while the user-friendly design allows for versatile storage through adjustable shelving.

Performance

System Features

- Ventilation fan for air circulation
- Adjustable temperature control dial
- Integrated heat exchange ventilation slots

Cooling Technology

Fan Direct Cooling

Design and Build

Door Configuration

Single-door glass display

Design Advantages

Bottom-mounted refrigeration, Adjustable shelving, Durable exterior coating, Interior illumination