

Commercial Vessels for International Shipping

These commercial vessels are designed for international shipping. They include bulk carriers, container ships, and oil tankers.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Professional Commercial Vessels

Our high-capacity commercial vessels are engineered for international maritime trade and bulk cargo transport. These ships are built to meet rigorous global standards, serving diverse routes from Southeast Asia to Europe and beyond. With proven operational reliability and standardized structural integrity, these carriers offer dependable performance for global logistics operations.

Technical Specifications

Available Deadweight Tonnage

- 18000
- 32000

Key Vessel Metrics

18000 DWT
Small Cargo Class

32000 DWT
Large Bulk Carrier

Construction Details

Feature	Specification
Hull Protection	Red anti-fouling paint
Navigation	Equipped with specialized draft marks
Design	Integrated crane and superstructure systems

Operations

Export Destinations	Philippines, Germany, Russia
---------------------	------------------------------