

Commuter Motorcycle with Standard Riding Posture

This motorcycle is designed for commuting on city streets. It features a comfortable seat and handlebars, front and rear suspension, a black fuel tank, and a chrome exhaust system.

Overview

Designed for Urban Commuting

This commuter motorcycle is engineered for reliability and comfort in daily urban environments. Featuring a standard riding posture, it ensures rider comfort during long commutes. The design incorporates durable components like a chrome exhaust system and sturdy spoke wheels, making it a dependable choice for professional buyers seeking practical transportation solutions.

Design & Aesthetics

Fuel Tank Color	Black
Wheel Type	Spoke wheels
Exhaust Finish	Chrome

Ergonomics & Comfort

Riding Posture	Standard
Suspension System	Front Suspension, Rear Suspension

Usage

Primary Application	Urban commuting
---------------------	-----------------