

Convactor Space Heater

This space heating apparatus features a rectangular design with a light-colored front panel and dark-colored side frames and base. The device is a convactor heater designed for household use, providing efficient and localized heating.

Product Overview

Efficient Heating Solution

This convactor space heater is designed for localized heating, offering a clean and minimalist aesthetic that complements any professional or residential setting. Its rectangular structure features a side-integrated vent system to ensure consistent airflow and efficient heat distribution. Built for reliability and performance, this appliance provides a versatile solution for maintaining comfortable room temperatures.

Technical Specifications

Recommended Usage

Household • Indoor

Design Type	Convactor
Color Scheme	Light-colored front, Dark-colored side frames
Vent Placement	Right-side vertical vent