

Corded Business Telephone

Professional telephone designed for office or business use. It features multiple function keys, a display screen, and call management capabilities.

Overview

Professional Business Telephony

This corded business telephone system is engineered to enhance organizational efficiency through advanced communication features. Designed for professional office environments, it supports robust connectivity options including voice messaging, conferencing, and door phone integration. With built-in power-saving modes and intuitive web-based management, it offers a scalable solution for modern enterprise communication needs.

Core Features

Supported Communication Features

- Voice Messaging
- Caller-ID
- Group Listening
- Conference Calling
- Hotline
- Day/Night Mode
- Call Forwarding
- Door Phone Connectivity
- Toll Restriction
- Extension Lock
- Long Conversation Support

System Management

Web-based System Management

Operational Efficiency

Power Saving Mode, IP Telephony Ready, High Efficiency