

Corded Desk Telephone with LCD

This corded telephone is a robust communication device with a durable construction. It features a clear LCD display and a user-friendly interface.

Product Overview

Professional Corded Communication

This robust desk telephone is engineered for high-reliability voice communication in demanding office and industrial environments. Featuring a clear integrated LCD for call information and high-definition hands-free technology, it is designed to enhance productivity by allowing users to multitask comfortably. The durable construction and tactile interface ensure longevity and ease of use in daily operations.

Technical Specifications

Interface

- Integrated LCD display
- Tactile control buttons
- Coiled handset cord
- Dedicated docking station

Audio Capabilities

High-definition hands-free, Speech companding technology, Real voice restoration

Design and Utility

Design Characteristics

Robust construction • Industrial grade • Ergonomic