

Corded Desktop Telephone with Redial

This corded telephone is designed for desktop or wall-mount use. It features a standard 12-button keypad, last number redial, and ringer volume control.

Overview

Compact Corded Communication

The KXT-1107 is a reliable corded telephone engineered for both desktop placement and wall-mount installation. Constructed from durable, high-quality plastic, this unit provides essential telephony functions in a compact footprint suitable for professional office or residential environments. It features an intuitive 12-button keypad and convenient last-number redial capabilities to ensure efficient daily operation.

Technical Specifications

Keypad Layout	Standard 12-button
Redial	Yes
Ringer Volume Control	Yes

Design & Build

Recommended Use	Office • Home
Primary Material	Durable Plastic
Mounting Options	Desktop, Wall-mount