

Corded Office Telephone

This corded telephone is designed for office or business use. It features a standard keypad, function keys, a display screen, and buttons for call management features.

Product Overview

Professional Corded Office Telephone

This corded office telephone is engineered for reliable business communication. It features a professional-grade design, an intuitive keypad, and essential functionality including call transfer, hold, and speed dial capabilities to streamline office productivity. The clear display and ergonomic handset ensure ease of use for daily business operations.

Technical Specifications

Key Features

- Call transfer functionality
- Dedicated hold button
- Programmable speed dial
- Built-in display screen

Connection Type

Corded

Design

Color	Black
Primary Use	Office, Business