

Corded Telephone with Caller ID

This corded telephone is a communication device designed for landline use. It features a digital display showing time, date, and caller ID information. Its primary function is to provide standard telephone services within a fixed location.

Product Overview

Professional Corded Telephone System

This corded telephone is designed to bring a sophisticated aesthetic to any workspace while enhancing communication efficiency. It features advanced speech companding technology for crystal-clear voice reproduction and an integrated hands-free function that allows users to multitask effectively. Equipped with a digital display for essential caller information, it serves as a reliable and professional countertop communication solution.

Key Features

Capabilities

- Hands-free calling
- High-definition voice quality
- Digital caller ID display
- Speech companding technology
- Time and date display

Compliance and Standards

Certifications

GCE

System Specs

Configuration

Countertop System