

Corded Telephone with Digital Display

This corded telephone is equipped with a digital display and a standard numeric keypad. It also has function buttons for redial, pause, and volume control.

Product Overview

Professional Corded Communication

This corded telephone is designed for reliable and clear communication in professional and office environments. Featuring a high-contrast digital display, the unit ensures easy identification of incoming numbers and call management. With a robust build and intuitive keypad layout, it offers a dependable solution for high-volume call handling requirements.

Technical Specifications

Keypad Configuration

- Standard Numeric 0-9
- Asterisk (*)
- Hash (#)
- Redial function
- Pause function
- Volume control

Model Number	HCD139 (19)P/TSDL A
--------------	---------------------

Display Type	Digital LCD
--------------	-------------

Compliance & Quality

Compliance Certifications	CC
---------------------------	----