

CT125 Four-Stroke Cruiser Motorcycle

The CT125 is a four-stroke motorcycle designed for general machinery applications. It features a classic cruiser design with a round headlight, chrome accents, and a comfortable seat with a backrest.

Overview

The CT125 Cruiser Experience

The CT125 is a reliable four-stroke motorcycle engineered for versatile transportation needs. Combining a classic cruiser aesthetic with practical performance, it features a round headlight and comfortable seating with a backrest. This model is perfectly suited for both efficient urban commuting and relaxed leisure riding.

Technical Specifications

Engine Type	Single-cylinder, four-stroke
Primary Applications	Urban Commuting, Leisure Riding, General Machinery

Design & Comfort

Key Design Elements

- Classic cruiser styling
- Round headlight
- Chrome accents
- Comfortable seat with backrest