

Custodial Ambulance for Secure Patient Transport

This custodial ambulance features a rich emergency configuration and an efficient functional layout. The spacious ambulance allows for professional medical customization.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Secure and Efficient Patient Transport

This custodial ambulance is engineered for professional medical transport, featuring a rich emergency configuration and an efficient functional layout. The vehicle is designed with a fiberglass integrated interior system that ensures durability and ease of cleaning for high-standard hygiene. With specialized medical equipment and a spacious cabin, it provides a safe and functional environment for both patients and medical personnel during critical transfers.

Interior Design

Fiberglass Integrated Interior System

Specialised equipment such as touch system, oxygen converter, humidification bottles, etc.

The integrated fiberglass interior is designed for durability and houses specialized medical systems including oxygen converters.

Ventilation

Exhaust Fan

Interior System

Fiberglass Integrated System

Roof Type

Glass fiber reinforced plastic shaped roof

Medical Equipment

Equipped with glass fibre reinforced plastic shaped roof, infusion hooks, exhaust fan

Equipped with a reinforced plastic shaped roof, infusion hooks, and an integrated exhaust fan for optimal patient care.

Specialized Equipment

- Touch control system
- Oxygen converter
- Humidification bottles
- Infusion hooks

Monitoring System

Yes

Configuration

Key Features

Spacious Layout, Professional Customization, Easy-to-Clean, Emergency Ready