

Disposable Polyethylene Gloves

Disposable polyethylene gloves offer a lightweight and cost-effective hand protection solution. These ambidextrous gloves feature a loose fit for easy donning and removal.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Disposable Polyethylene Gloves

These disposable polyethylene gloves are designed for light-duty tasks that require effective barrier protection. Crafted from a combination of HDPE and LDPE materials, they offer a lightweight, cost-effective solution for maintaining hygiene and preventing cross-contamination. With a loose fit and ambidextrous design, they are ideal for food handling, cleaning, and various light industrial applications.

Technical Specifications

Material	HDPE, LDPE
Thickness	18 microns
Dimensions	28 x 25 cm

Features & Benefits

Key Features

- Ambidextrous design for easy donning
- Loose fit for comfort
- Single-use application
- Latex-free and powder-free
- Barrier against non-hazardous substances

Common Applications

Food Handling • Cleaning • Light Industrial