

Disposable Polypropylene Lab Coat

This disposable lab coat is made from spunbond polypropylene (SBPP) to provide a lightweight, breathable barrier. It features a collared neck, button-down closure, and elastic cuffs for a secure fit.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Protection

These disposable spunbond polypropylene (SBPP) lab coats are designed to provide a lightweight, breathable barrier in laboratory, cleanroom, and food processing environments. The material offers reliable protection against particulate matter and non-hazardous liquid splashes while maintaining wearer comfort. Featuring durable construction with secure cuff options and various closure styles, this garment is an ideal cost-effective solution for preventing cross-contamination in controlled settings.

Technical Specifications

| | |
|------------------|--|
| Fabric Weight | 40 g/m ² |
| Available Colors | White, Blue, Green, Yellow, Red, Orange, Dark Blue, Dark Green |

Design and Customization

Cuff Styles

- Elastic Cuff
- Knitted Cuff

Front Closure Options

- Zipper
- Velcro
- Snap Buttons

Collar Styles

- Stand Collar
- Turn Collar