

Door and Panel Lifting Tool

This tread plate is designed for adjusting the lifting height of doors during installation at different angles. By inserting the splint at the door's bottom and using a tiptoe and heel motion on the red marking area and black rubber cushion, the lifting height can be adjusted.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

