

Double Cylinder Lock for High-Security Doors

This cylinder lock is designed for high-security applications in commercial and residential settings. It features a double-cylinder mechanism and comes with two keys, each featuring a precision-cut profile for reliable operation.

Overview

High-Security Double Cylinder Lock

This robust cylinder lock is engineered for high-security applications in both commercial and residential settings. Constructed from durable polished metal, it features a double-cylinder mechanism specifically designed to resist picking and forced entry. The precision-cut key profile ensures reliable operation, making it an ideal choice for doors where security is paramount.

Security Features

Key Security Features

2 qty Cylinders	2 included Precision Keys
---------------------------	-------------------------------------

Protection Mechanisms

Anti-Picking, Forced Entry Resistance, Double-Cylinder Mechanism

Technical Specifications

Material	Polished Metal
Installation	Standard door installations with threaded mounting holes
Key Profile	Precision-cut profile for enhanced reliability

Applications

Recommended Use

Commercial • Residential • High-Security Doors