

Dual Channel Wireless Microphone System

This is a dual wireless microphone system with an integrated base station. It's designed for karaoke and public address applications.

Product Overview

Professional Dual Channel Wireless Audio

This dual channel wireless microphone system is engineered for versatility, serving as an ideal solution for both karaoke enthusiasts and professional public address applications. The system features an integrated base station with independent volume controls for each microphone, allowing for precise audio balancing. With a clear digital display and dedicated input jacks, this unit offers intuitive control and seamless integration into existing audio setups.

Technical Specifications

Channels	2
Connectivity	Wireless, Microphone Input Jacks

Features

Control Interface

- Individual microphone volume controls
- Digital display
- Independent channel inputs

Applications

Primary Applications

Karaoke • Public Address