

Dual Head Pick Mattock Tool

This heavy-duty pick tool features a dual head design, offering both a pick end for breaking hard surfaces and a mattock end for digging and prying. It is constructed with a durable handle and a secure head attachment for reliable performance.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Heavy-Duty Dual Head Design

This versatile pick mattock tool is engineered for demanding applications, featuring a dual-head design that combines a pointed pick for breaking hard surfaces with a broad, flat adze for digging and prying. Built for reliability, the tool incorporates a durable head attachment system and a high-visibility fiberglass handle. The addition of a textured grip ensures enhanced comfort and control during intensive demolition or landscaping tasks.

Technical Specifications

Head Configuration	Dual-head (Pointed Pick and Flat Adze)
Handle Material	Fiberglass
Handle Features	High-visibility yellow, Textured grip

Applications

Primary Applications

- Demolition
- Digging
- Breaking up hard materials
- Prying