

Electric Steam Iron for Garment Care

This electric steam iron is designed for efficient and effective garment care. It features variable steam control, a durable soleplate, and a transparent water tank.

Product Overview

Efficiency in Garment Care

The SI-218 steam iron is engineered to provide efficient and effective garment maintenance for a variety of fabric types. It features a durable soleplate designed for smooth gliding and ergonomic handling to ensure user comfort during operation. With integrated variable steam control and comprehensive safety mechanisms, this unit serves as a reliable and practical solution for wrinkle removal.

Technical Specifications

Usage Environment

Household Use

Model Number	SI-218
Power Source	Electric

Features

Operational Controls

- Variable steam control
- Transparent water tank monitoring
- Ergonomic handle grip

Safety Certifications & Functions	Overheat Protection, Auto-Shutoff
-----------------------------------	-----------------------------------