

Electronic Cash Register for Tax Control

This electronic cash register is designed for basic transaction processing and tax control. It features a keyboard interface, a display screen, and a receipt printer.

Product Overview

Professional Tax Control Solution

This electronic cash register is designed to streamline business automation and transaction processing. It integrates essential tax control functionalities with a reliable receipt printing system, making it an ideal tool for standard retail and service environments. The unit features an intuitive keyboard interface and a clear display, ensuring ease of use for staff and efficient money collection.

Core Functionality

Device Category	Electronic Tax Controlling and Money Collecting Machine
Key Features	Tax Control, Transaction Processing, Receipt Printing, Business Automation

Hardware Interface

Hardware Components

- Keyboard Interface
- Integrated Display Screen
- Receipt Printer