

Electronic Cash Register

This electronic cash register is designed for retail and business environments. It is used to manage transactions and record sales data, featuring an integrated display, multiple keypads, and a cash drawer.

Overview

Versatile Transaction Management

The ZQ-ECR1200 is a versatile electronic cash register designed to streamline operations across retail and catering industries. It features a thoughtful functional design that supports multiple selling methods, including price adjustments, bill holding, and refunds. With integrated member management and powerful reporting capabilities, this system helps businesses optimize marketing efforts and maintain clear oversight of sales and stock data.

Core Features

Key Highlights

- PC software integration for commodity data management
- Comprehensive sales functions including refunds and price changes
- Flexible system configuration via PC for convenient operation
- Advanced reporting including PTD, stock, and shortage reports
- Dedicated restaurant functions with taste options and meal sets
- Integrated member management for marketing

Technical Specifications

Model Number	ZQ-ECR1200
Peripheral Support	Yes

Industry Applications

Suitable Industries

Retail • Catering • Restaurant

Data & Reporting

Available Report Types	PTD Report, Stock Report, Shortage Report, Configuration Report
------------------------	---

Restaurant Functions

Specialized Features

- Dishes with taste options
- Meal set selling functions