

Electronic Point-of-Sale Cash Register

This electronic cash register is designed for point-of-sale transactions. It features a keypad for manual entry, a display screen for transaction viewing, and functionalities for calculating totals, taxes, and providing change.

Overview

Professional Point-of-Sale Solution

This electronic cash register is designed to streamline point-of-sale transactions in retail and business environments. It features a dedicated keypad for manual entry and a clear display screen for real-time transaction viewing. The system is engineered to manage sales data effectively, offering essential functionalities for calculating totals, taxes, and change.

Core Functionality

Key Capabilities

- Manual transaction entry via keypad
- Real-time transaction viewing on display screen
- Automated total and tax calculations
- Change calculation for customer service
- Financial data tracking and management

Hardware Features

Interface Components

Keypad, Display Screen, Cash Drawer

Application

Intended Use

Retail • Commercial Business • Point-of-Sale