

Facial Steamer with Anion Mist

This facial steamer is designed for home use and heats towels with steam. It features anion steam for facial treatments and a removable water tank for easy refills.

Product Overview

Professional Facial Steamer with Anion Technology

This facial steamer is designed to provide spa-quality facial treatments at home, featuring advanced anion steam technology to effectively open pores and hydrate the skin. Its ergonomic design directs steam precisely for deep cleansing and improved circulation, promoting a radiant complexion. The unit includes a removable water tank for convenient refilling and versatile functionality, including the ability to heat towels.

Key Features

Core Features

- Anion steam technology
- Removable water tank for easy refilling
- Suitable for home use
- Towel heating capability

Usage & Application

Usage Type

Home Use, Facial Treatment, Deep Cleansing, Hydration

Design & Controls

Control Interface

OFF • ON-OFF