

Fiberglass Double Sided Stepladder

This fiberglass double-sided stepladder is designed for professional use, offering a safe and durable climbing solution. The double-sided design allows for two-person use, increasing efficiency on the job site.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Grade Fiberglass Stepladder

Designed for demanding industrial and commercial environments, this double-sided fiberglass stepladder provides a safe and stable platform for working at height. Its non-conductive fiberglass construction makes it an ideal choice for electrical work, while the dual-access design allows for two-person use to maximize job site efficiency. Built to meet rigorous safety standards, it features heavy-duty aluminum steps and reinforced bracing for long-lasting durability.

Technical Specifications

| | |
|-----------------------|------------|
| Maximum Load Capacity | 150 kg |
| Ladder Size | 1.8m (6') |
| Reach Height | 3.2 m |
| Net Weight | 11.75 kg |
| Available Step Count | 2-11 steps |

Safety & Compliance

Key Safety Features

- Non-conductive fiberglass rails
- Heavy-duty slip-resistant boot
- Double-riveted steps
- External spreader
- Steel brace on each step

| | |
|----------------|---------------------------------|
| Certifications | AS 1892.1:2018, Intertek Tested |
|----------------|---------------------------------|

Construction

Material Composition

Fiberglass • Aluminum • Steel