

Flush Mount Floor Box for Power and Data

This flush mount floor box is designed for installation in concrete floors. It provides recessed power and data connections with a hinged cover and adjustable leveling feet.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Versatile In-Floor Service Solution

This flush mount floor box provides a robust, concealed solution for managing power and data connections in commercial and industrial environments. Designed for concrete floor installations, the unit features a modular architecture that supports up to 24 modules, allowing for highly customizable configurations based on specific project requirements. With options for both durable plastic and premium stainless steel cover plates, this system ensures seamless integration into various interior designs while maintaining reliable service access.

Technical Specifications

Construction Materials

- Galvanized steel enclosure
- Durable plastic housing
- Stainless steel or plastic cover plate

Module Capacity	24 modules
Cover Plate Materials	Plastic, Stainless Steel
Installation Type	Flush Mount (Concrete Floor)