

Forged Steel Pry Bar with Nail Puller

This heavy-duty prying tool is designed for demolition, construction, and leverage applications. Constructed from forged steel, it offers exceptional strength and includes a chisel end and nail puller.

Overview

Professional Grade Demolition Tool

This heavy-duty pry bar is engineered for demanding construction and demolition applications. Constructed from high-strength forged steel, it offers superior leverage and durability for lifting and prying tasks. The tool features a specialized chisel end and an integrated nail puller, making it a versatile essential for site work.

Technical Specifications

Material	Forged Steel
Finish	Black corrosion-resistant coating

Features

Applications

- Demolition
- Construction
- Lifting
- Prying
- Nail Removal

Key Features

Chisel End, Nail Puller, Corrosion Resistant, Heavy Duty

Manufacturing

Country of Origin

Made in China