

Forged Steel Shovel Head for Gardening

This forged steel shovel head is designed for gardening and landscaping. It features durable construction for digging, scooping, and moving materials and is compatible with standard shovel handles.

Product Overview

Professional Grade Durability

This forged steel shovel head is engineered for heavy-duty gardening and landscaping applications. Built with a focus on long-term performance, it is designed for demanding tasks such as digging, scooping, and material handling. Its robust construction ensures reliability for both professional landscapers and dedicated gardening enthusiasts.

Technical Specifications

Target User

Professional • Home Gardeners

Material	Forged Steel
Primary Applications	Gardening, Landscaping, Digging, Material Handling
Compatibility	Standard shovel handles