

Four-Stroke Motorcycle CT125-2

The CT125-2 is a four-stroke motorcycle designed for efficient and reliable transportation. Featuring a robust engine, it delivers adequate power for urban and rural environments.

Overview

Reliable Four-Stroke Commuter

The CT125-2 is a versatile four-stroke motorcycle engineered for both urban commuting and rural transportation. Built with a sturdy frame and reliable suspension, it offers stability and comfort across various road conditions. This model features a standard transmission system for smooth gear transitions, complemented by responsive braking and lighting systems to ensure rider safety.

Technical Specifications

Engine Type	Four-Stroke
Transmission	Standard

Features

Safety Equipment

Responsive Braking • Reliable Lighting

Intended Use	Daily Commuting, Recreational Use, Urban Transportation, Rural Transportation
--------------	---