

Front Brim Safety Helmet CE EN 397

This CE EN 397 certified front brim safety helmet provides essential head protection in various work environments. Constructed from high-quality materials, it offers impact resistance and durability.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Head Protection

This CE EN 397 certified front brim safety helmet is engineered for reliable performance in demanding industrial and construction environments. Constructed from high-density polyethylene (HDPE), the shell provides robust impact resistance while the 6-point ratchet suspension system ensures a secure, customizable fit. Designed with both safety and comfort in mind, it features an adjustable chin strap and is compatible with various accessories via integrated side slots.

Technical Specifications

Shell Material	HDPE
Suspension System	6-Point Ratchet
Venting	No
Accessory Mounting	Side-Slots

Features & Compliance

Safety Standards

CE EN 397

Color Options

- Red
- Yellow
- Blue
- White
- Customized

Chin Strap Features

Adjustable with chin protector