

Front Brim Safety Helmet EN 397 Certified

This CE EN 397 certified front brim safety helmet is designed to provide head protection in various work environments. The front brim provides additional shielding from sun and rain.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Head Protection

This front brim safety helmet is engineered to provide robust head protection in high-risk environments such as construction and industrial sites. Certified to EN 397 standards, the helmet features a durable ABS shell designed to absorb shock and protect against impact. It includes integrated comfort features like a foam-cushioned sweatband and a rain trough to ensure usability during long shifts.

Technical Specifications

Shell Material	ABS
Adjustment Range	54-63 cm
Suspension Type	6-point Ratchet
Available Colors	White, Yellow, Blue, Red, Orange, Green
Head Protection Venting	Yes

Compliance & Standards

Certification Standards

CE • EN 397:2012+A1:2012

Features & Accessories

Key Features

- Rain trough on sides and back
- Universal slot for accessories
- Adjustable chin strap with protector
- Foam-cushioned sweatband

Accessory Compatibility

Ear muffs, face shields, and welding masks