

FT150-2 Motorcycle

The FT150-2 motorcycle is a versatile and reliable mode of transportation. It is equipped with a front disc brake and a rear drum brake for optimal stopping power.

Overview

FT150-2 Motorcycle Overview

The FT150-2 is a versatile and reliable motorcycle designed for both city commuting and recreational riding. It features a robust engine, a comfortable seat, and a stylish design that ensures a pleasant experience for the rider. The suspension system is engineered to provide a smooth ride, even when navigating rough road conditions.

Performance & Safety

Braking System	Front Disc Brake, Rear Drum Brake
Suspension Type	Optimized suspension system for rough roads

Usage

Ideal Applications

- City commuting
- Recreational riding