

Full Port Brass Ball Valve

This ball valve is made of brass and features a full port design. It is used to control the flow of liquid or gas through a pipe.

Product Overview

Full Port Brass Ball Valve

This full port brass ball valve is designed to efficiently control the flow of liquids or gases within a piping system. Featuring a reliable red handle for intuitive manual operation, it allows for quick and secure opening and closing. Its durable brass construction and threaded connections make it an ideal choice for diverse industrial piping applications.

Technical Specifications

Available Sizes

- 1/2"
- 3/4"
- 1"

Article Number	B1009
Valve Configuration	Full Port (FXM)
Construction Material	Brass, Metal