

Full Suspension Mountain Bicycle

This bicycle features a full-suspension frame design, providing enhanced comfort and control on varied terrains. Equipped with front suspension forks, it absorbs shocks and bumps for a smoother ride.

Overview

Full Suspension Mountain Bicycle

This full-suspension mountain bicycle is engineered for enhanced comfort and control across varied terrains. Featuring a durable frame construction and front suspension forks, it effectively absorbs shocks and bumps for a smoother riding experience. Equipped with a multi-speed drivetrain, it offers adaptable performance for both recreational riding and light off-road use.

Technical Specifications

Suspension Type	Full suspension
Drivetrain	Multi-speed
Intended Use	Recreational, Light off-road

Components

Included Components

- Saddle
- Handlebars
- Wheels with tires
- Braking system
- Front suspension forks

Construction

Frame Durability

Durable construction • Reliable