

Full Suspension Mountain Bicycle

This full suspension mountain bicycle has a lightweight frame with front and rear suspension. It is equipped with a multi-speed drivetrain, responsive brakes, and durable wheels.

Overview

Full Suspension Mountain Bicycle

This full suspension mountain bicycle is engineered for demanding off-road adventures and trail riding. Featuring a lightweight frame combined with both front and rear suspension systems, it offers superior shock absorption and control on uneven terrain. Equipped with a versatile multi-speed drivetrain and responsive braking, this bike ensures reliable performance and safety for professional riders.

Technical Specifications

Intended Use

Off-Road • Trail Riding • Mountain Biking

Model Number	F52606
Suspension Type	Full Suspension, Front Suspension, Rear Suspension

Key Features

Performance Features

- Lightweight frame construction
- Multi-speed drivetrain for varied terrain
- Responsive braking system
- Durable wheelset for optimal traction