

Full Suspension Mountain Bicycle

This full suspension mountain bicycle features a black frame with red and white accents. It is equipped with front and rear suspension and knobby tires for comfortable riding on varied terrain.

Overview

Built for Adventure

This full suspension mountain bicycle is engineered for riders seeking performance on challenging trails. Featuring a robust frame with distinctive red and white accents, it combines durability with agile handling. The advanced suspension system ensures a smooth, controlled ride even on rough, uneven terrain.

Technical Specifications

Suspension System

Full Suspension • Front Suspension • Rear Suspension

Primary Use Cases

- Recreational Riding
- Off-road Adventures
- Rough Terrain Navigation

Key Performance Features

1 Durable Frame Construction	1 Reliable Component Design
--	---------------------------------------

Tire Configuration

Knobby tires for enhanced off-road traction

Frame Aesthetics

Black Frame, Red Accents, White Accents