

Full Suspension Mountain Bicycle

This full suspension mountain bicycle has a sturdy frame with a front suspension fork and rear shock absorber. It is equipped with a multi-speed drivetrain and reliable braking system.

Overview

Versatile All-Terrain Performance

This full suspension mountain bicycle is engineered for both recreational riding and light off-road exploration. Featuring a robust frame paired with a front suspension fork and a rear shock absorber, it ensures superior comfort and control across varied terrains. The multi-speed drivetrain and reliable braking system provide the versatility and safety required for diverse riding conditions.

Technical Specifications

Intended Use

Recreational • Light Off-Road

Safety Features

- Reliable braking system
- Sturdy frame construction
- Enhanced shock absorption

Suspension System	Full Suspension, Front Fork, Rear Shock
Drivetrain	Multi-speed