

Full Suspension Mountain Bicycle

This full suspension mountain bicycle features a durable frame, front suspension fork, and rear shock absorber for enhanced comfort and control on rough terrain. Equipped with multiple gears and reliable brakes, it offers versatility for various riding conditions.

Product Overview

Rugged Full-Suspension Mountain Bike

This full-suspension mountain bicycle is engineered for recreational off-road cycling, featuring a durable steel frame combined with front and rear suspension systems to ensure comfort on rough terrain. With an 18-speed gear system and reliable V-brakes, it provides the versatility and control necessary for varied riding conditions. Designed for durability and performance, this bike offers a responsive riding experience for entry-level enthusiasts.

Technical Specifications

Frame Size	18 inch
Wheel Size	26 inch
Tire Width	1.95 inch
Front Fork Travel	50 mm

Drivetrain

Total Speeds	18
Crankset Configuration	28/38/48T, 170mm length

Components

Brake Type	Plastic coated steel V-brake
Color Options	Orange, Silver, Black
Rim Construction	Alloy, single wall, 36H