

Furniture Assembly Screws

These screws are designed for furniture assembly and construction. They are available in various lengths and finishes, featuring a countersunk head for a flush fit and a durable shank for secure fastening.

Product Overview

High-Strength Furniture Assembly Screws

These high-strength screws are specifically engineered for furniture assembly and woodworking projects. Featuring a countersunk head design, they ensure a flush, professional finish on any surface. With a durable shank construction, they provide secure fastening and long-lasting stability for all your repair and construction needs.

Technical Specifications

Key Features

- High-strength material
- Countersunk head for flush fit
- Durable shank design
- Secure fastening capability

Head Type	Countersunk
Primary Applications	Furniture Assembly, Woodworking, Furniture Repair, Construction